

Lexus Lineup Makes its way to the Chicago Auto Show

Chicago – Jan. 31, 2025 – Lexus is bringing style, technology and efficiency to the Windy City with 15 models from its lineup, including several special editions. The Chicago Auto Show takes place Feb. 8-17 at McCormick Place, located at 2301 S King Dr.

Newly added to the best-selling Lexus lineup, guests at the auto show will see the limited-run 2025 Lexus RX 500h Black Line Special Edition package. Limited to 500 units across the United States for the 2025 model year, the package is offered exclusively on the RX 500h F SPORT Performance model and features black exterior appearance parts, orange brake calipers and 21-inch split-five-spoke wheels with a black finish.

In addition to offering the Black Line Special Edition package, the 2025 RX sees the introduction of the F SPORT Design grade, available only on RX 350 and RX 350h. With the new grade, the RX is now offered in seven grades: Standard, Premium, Premium+, Luxury, F SPORT Handling, F SPORT Performance and F SPORT Design. The 2025 RX is now available in dealerships.

Guests of the auto show will also have the opportunity to experience the 2025 RC 350 F Sport for the vehicles final swan song. After a decade on the market and more than a combined 90,000 units sold across 62 countries and regions, the Lexus RC and RC F will officially be discontinued at the conclusion of this model year.
